Collected Poems (Annotated) Oscar Wilde

This ebook includes a biographical introduction, a short critical analysis of Oscar Wilde and a brief introduction to this work.

Published in 1881, Collected Poems was Wilde's first published work, marking him out as a new literary talent, yet setting him up for critical exposure. This version of does not include The Ballad of Reading Gaol, but does incorporate a set of uncollected poems and comes closer to the book Robert Ross published posthumously. What sets Wilde's poetry apart is the impressive knowledge and use of metre, though his tendency for antiquated expression does at times create difficulties.
