He's not afraid to be a man... now he has to be a father – to a child that isn't his.

Wearing the President's patch for Back Down Devil MC comes with enough danger, but now Miller is waging a war of revenge on one of the most prominent figures in town. A man who wears a badge and who has turned his back on the club. What's at stake goes far beyond the present and future... this is to settle a damaged past...

Because of one woman.

Ella never understood why Miller left her. Why he just disappeared into the night all those years ago, only to return bigger and meaner than ever. Years stripped them apart as she married Jerry and had his baby. But it's all a lie. Her heart remains with one man, but how can she get him to accept her now...

All it takes is one moment to change everything. When Ella shows up to the clubhouse with a baby, Miller knows this is his chance to not only protect the one woman he's ever loved, but to become the man he always knew he could be. While the baby staring at him doesn't share his blood, Miller vows to share his love with the young life. The only problem... Miller must kill the baby's father first.
