Make Your Relationship Work Now: 7 Secrets to Building Lasting Love and Strengthening Your Relationship Daytona Watterson

The majority of books on how to make your relationship work show you techniques on how to be someone you are not. Here's a book that shows you from personal experience what your partner sees when you fight and how you can use compromise to fix just about any problem.

In her book, Make Your Relationship Work Now, Daytona Watterson—authority on relationship advice—shows you step by step techniques you can easily implement on how to fix your relationship today. Too many couples develop patterns that they simply can not break that over time deteriorate the relationship. If you can identify those triggers quickly, you can repair just about any damage. It is one thing to tell you to stop fighting, it is another to show you techniques that have worked successfully for many couples.

~ I've been in many relationships that simply began to fall into the same pattern over and over again. I imagine that you are wondering how your loving relationship ever got to the point it is today. Looking back you see that the two of you once had the most amazing times together, and now you can not talk for a few minutes without things getting heated. There are certain things that the both of you are doing that are causing the other person to run the same patterns over and over again. I want to show you how I broke those patterns in my own relationships and explain to you what you need to look for to help stop fighting before it escalates. You can never get back this precious time and you can not take back those harsh things you say to each other, I will show you how to get back on track and make your relationship work now. Daytona ~

Here Is A Preview Of What You'll Learn...
