New Beginnings: A Halfway Home Short Story Steve Voelker

From the world of Hugh Howey's Half Way Home...

Ten years have passed since we were abandoned on this strange planet. We've done all we can to carve out a life for ourselves among the exotic and dangerous creatures call this place home.

Everything is going fine, until the alien ship appears on the horizon. It hurtles overhead, shattering our illusion of safety and threatening our new way of life by crash-landing uncomfortably close to our fledgling community.

Now, its up to me to lead a small scouting party to investigate the landing site. We are expecting the worst, but none of us are prepared for what we find.
