Sophomore Leah, ever since she was little has always wanted to be different but since her past of being Anorexic and troubles with Obsessive Compulsive Disorder has broken that thought. Losing friends and not knowing why, she desperately is in need of another close friend. And the new boy Avery-August seems like just the one. Leah's boyfriend, Brett, seems to click right away with Avery-August, but Leah knows he is jealous of her spending so much time with her newly made friend. Jealous, that is, until December first, until the red and blue sirens and the yellow body bag. Until the primary colors of another loss.
