Jesus In Us: Identified With Christ Scott Williams

There are many books on Christian living today that are revolutionary and inspiring. These are typically from mega church pastors or leaders of large ministry organizations. JESUS IN US is from a different perspective. It is from an ordinary follower of Christ who has been deeply impacted by an extraordinary God. JESUS IN US is a rally cry to this generation of Christ followers. Many of us have believed the lies and forgotten who we are. This book shows that our identity should come from Christ alone and that as we are identified with Christ we become a part of His body?the church. Jesus died and rose so that we could find our place in His life. He is to be displayed to the world through us in a movement of unified love. JESUS IN US is encouraging to the new believer as well as the theologian. It will challenge us all to take one step closer to our King. We are in this journey together. It is not about me. It is not about you. It is about Jesus in us.
