This Can't Be Love Kasey Michaels

In New York Times bestselling author Kasey Michaels's heartwarming sequel to This Must Be Love, madcap heiress Molly Preston finds herself babysitting a Broadway producer's niece and nephew...and fast becoming the leading lady of his life. If Molly Preston marches to the beat of a different drummer, it's probably a naked bongo player. Gorgeous and free-spirited, Molly's set for life--provided she stays employed ten months out of the year as stipulated in her parents' will. To keep the inheritance flowing, she works as a lingerie model, a mansion-sitter, a singing-slash-rollerskating carhop...you name it, Molly's done it. But a weekend gig babysitting her cousin Jane's daycare business might just lead to something permanent with would-be client Dom Longstreet. He's a Broadway producer who could make all her dreams come true...if only she'd let him. Dom's idea of "summer vacation" is hosting a working retreat for the cast of his upcoming musical spectacular. Sure, he's also promised to babysit his niece and nephew for two weeks, but that's what the local daycare center is for, right? Unfortunately, the place will be closed just when he needs it, according to the beautiful--and exasperating--woman he finds in charge. In exchange for room and board on his estate, Molly Preston agrees to watch the kids. But Dom can't stop watching Molly, who's fast becoming the unlikeliest of muses...and maybe--just maybe--his perfect leading lady.
