Wheel of the Year: A cookbook of celebrations and rituals from a modern pagan household Megan Duncan Edwards Gammack

This small cookbook of celebrations and rituals from a modern pagan household contains recipes, insights into pagan holidays, and beautiful black and white photography. This is not a "how to be a pagan" book. It is a cookbook infused with paganism. Megan Gammack speaks of the universality of food and celebration and allows a peek into some of her practices, influenced by paganism but always acknowledging the many paths to truth and community.
