Learn how to CRUSH your Network Marketing business and truly master the proven process!

New network marketers enter the industry excited about their product, company and the world of possibility opening before them. Sadly, many lack the support and guidance to develop good sales and recruiting techniques and their excitement quickly turns to confusion and frustration. Company leaders and uplines make attaining riches look easy, but when a newbie is slow to catch on, they are often left to their own devices. Most of these leave their business behind and resume trading their precious hours for too few dollars. Some become serial marketers who jump from company to company in search of the success they have seen others attain, many become bitter and denounce network marketing as a scam, but most just abandon their dreams.

I'm Tim Sparks, I have been running a super successful Network Marketing empire for the last 2 decades and want to share my knowledge and passion with people that are eager to learn and apply. I truly want to be an inspiration and help you succeed. I know what works, what doesn't work and how to truly master this model and be successful long term.

If you're flummoxed and on the verge of giving up, stop. If you're an almost newbie wondering whether you should jump into the industry, take the dive. But, no matter where you are in your network marketing career, read this book before you take another step.
