Diverging from reductionist studies of Northeast India and its multifarious conflicts, this book presents an exclusive and intricate, empirical and theoretical study of Assam as a conflict zone. It traces the genesis and evolution of the ethnic and nationalistic politics in the state, and explores how this gave birth to nativist and militant movements. It further discusses how the State's responses seem to have exacerbated rather than mitigated the conflict situation.

The author proposes ethnic reconciliation as an effective way out of the current chaos, and finds the key in examining the relations between three communities (Axamiy?, Bodo and Koch) from Bodoland, the most violent region of Assam. She stresses upon the need to redefine 'Axamiy?', an issue of much discord in Assam's ethnic politics since the modern-day formulation of the Axamiy? nation. The book will prove essential to scholars and students of peace and conflict studies, sociology, political science, and history, as also to policy-makers and those interested in Northeast India.

As a pupil exactly feel bored in order to reading. If their teacher requested them to go to the library as well as to make summary for some guide, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's heart and soul or real their pastime. They just do what the instructor want, like asked to go to the library. They go to there but nothing reading really. Any students feel that reading is not important, boring and also can't see colorful images on there. Yeah, it is being complicated. Book is very important in your case. As we know that on this period of time, many ways to get whatever we wish. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this Conflict and Reconciliation: The Politics of Ethnicity in Assam (Transition in Northeastern India) can make you truly feel more interested to read.
