Everyone worries about money. Without the guarantee of a steady stream of income that a corporate job gives, filmmakers and freelancers who hop from job to job tend to worry even more.

Fear no more. Even no-budget filmmakers can take hold of their financial futures and come out on top.

In this book you will learn:

- How to save more money than you thought you had
- How to invest your money wisely and retire in comfort
- What to do with money from pay raises and unexpected windfalls
- How to tackle debt and increase your net worth
- And much, much more! When it comes to your financial security, don't take chances! No-budget filmmaker no longer has to mean "starving artist!"
