Cathleen Hampton is an ambitious young woman. She attends NYU and runs her own business. But for all her academic and entrepreneurial success, there's one area in her life where things are clearly lacking: her love life.

That's until she meets Gareth Daugherty. He's young, hot, and rich. But there's a catch. In a couple of months, their parents are about to marry. Despite that little problem, they quickly develop a strong connection.

Will the taboo prove too much for them to overcome?
Or will they give into their passionate desire for one another?
