Jack The Ripper Versus Sherlock Holmes: With Autopsy Reports and Photographs. Phillip Duke Ph.D. Jack The Ripper is history's most infamous killer and mutilating butcher of women, he was never identified. Sherlock Holmes is the world's most famous murder mystery detective, he never failed and solved every case. Both men were products of the same Victorian era, and lived in the same city, London. It was inevitable that their paths would cross.

Jack The Ripper was an all too real serial killer and mutilating butcher of women who was never caught, while consulting detective Sherlock Holmes who never failed was the brilliant imaginary creation of Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, Scottish author and physician who was knighted for his writing. The interaction of Sherlock Holmes and Jack The Ripper is an intimate combination of Jack The Ripper fact, and Sherlock Holmes fiction. I have been true to the natures of Jack The Ripper's horrible crimes against women, and to the characters of Sherlock Holmes and Doctor John Watson, his associate, friend and chronicler, as described by their creator Sir Arthur Conan Doyle. If Sherlock Holmes had actually investigated Jack The Ripper's crimes, then the actions of both men might very well be just as I describe them.

Sherlock Holmes was justly famous for never failing to solve a case, and no doubt by applying his astonishing powers of observation, scientific examination and logical deduction, he would succeed in identifying Jack The Ripper. It was rumored that The Ripper was never caught because, being of Royal blood, he was protected by the police. However once identified apprehension would be only a matter of time, and justice would necessarily follow swiftly, by the hangman's noose, no matter who Jack The Ripper was, or how high his station in life. This is all as certain as the Earth turns... or is it?

If I told you just how cleverly Sherlock Holmes is able to identify Jack The Ripper, and what happens in the surprising climax, when Sherlock Holmes personally confronts Jack The Ripper in Buckingham Palace, your reading pleasure would be spoiled, and I won't do that.

If you like reading about Sherlock Holmes, or serial killers, or just like a good murder mystery detective story, you will enjoy reading this literary quality ebook about Sherlock Holmes versus Jack The Ripper, real serial killer and mutilating butcher of women. With 20 illustrations including autopsy photographs, and the complete and uncensored Autopsy Reports about The Ripper's victims, all of whom were female prostitutes.

I consider this the best of my Sherlock Holmes ebooks, and if you like reading about Sherlock Holmes, detective murder mysteries, or serial killers, you will enjoy reading this ebook.
