Macbeth, 2nd Edition

William Shakespeare

Macbeth, 2nd Edition William Shakespeare

This Oxfordian Shakespeare Series presents, for the first time, fully-annotated editions informed by the view that the plays were written by Edward de Vere, the seventeenth Earl of Oxford—a view that reveals their true meaning and significance not only for his contemporaries but also for today's readers and playgoers. Taking advantage of almost a century of Oxfordian research and scholarship as well as traditional scholarship, the editors show how Oxford, like all great writers, drew on his own life experience and his times. The editions reward the reader with a new and profound appreciation of the plays as works of a controversial nobleman in Queen Elizabeth's court, who used the pseudonym William Shakespeare. Lovers of the Shakespeare plays will want to see how this Oxfordian perspective informs and illuminates them. The plays in this series and their editors include: Macbeth, 2d Edition, 2013, Richard F. Whalen, co-general editor of the series Othello, 2010, Ren Draya, Blackburn College; and Richard F. Whalen Hamlet, Jack Shuttleworth, chair, English Department, USAF Academy (ret.) Antony and Cleopatra, Michael Delahoyde, Washington State University The Tempest, Roger Stritmatter, Coppin State University, with Lynne Kositsky Henry the Fifth, Kathy R. Binns-Dray, Lee University King John, Daniel L. Wright, Concordia University, Portland, Oregon Love's Labor's Lost, Felicia Londre, University of Missouri-Kansas City Much Ado About Nothing, Anne Pluto, Lesley University
