He was a member of the Hicksite Friends church. Mrs. Walker, her forefathers and her family were all lifelong members of the Baptist church and in the building of their new church in Wilmington. she was one of the largest contributors and has always been an active worker in the church. To Abel and Mary Jane (Patterson) Walker were born five children, namely: Hannah. iar_v. who died at the age of seventeen years; Tacy Patterson, who married Dr. Austin Robinson, of Baltimore. Maryland; Sarah Hummer, who married Frank L. Miller, of Wilniingtoli. this county; Louise Denver, who remains with her mother, and Elizabeth Jackson, who died in 1910. Mrs. Walker, though now journeying toward the sunset of her useful life--for she has passed the traditional three-score-and-ten-mark---retains the liveliest interest in current affairs and still is busily engaged in promoting such measures for the general good as may conveniently be given her personal attention. She is honored and respected by all who know her and occupies a firm place in the regard of the entire community. DANIEL A. J. ROBINSON. Daniel A. J. Robinson, the subject of this sketch, who is now deceased. was one of the highly-respected citizens of Clinton county. He was a man of exceptional character and sterling qualities, and is greatly mourned by a host of loyal friends. Daniel A. J. Robinson was born in Susquehanna county. Pennsylvania, on December 22. 1828. and died in Clinton county on August 9. 1909. He was the son of John and Sarah (Rider) Robinson. who came to Brown county.
