With Sataniel's demise the Infernal Region has a new master, this one more ruthless than the last. When demonic outbreaks threaten more than humanity, God sends his granddaughter, Abigail, to set things right. Mephistopheles is not as she expects. He is ruthless and unforgiving with glimpses of affection and sensuality. While she despises all that he is, she is tormented by the irresistible pull leading her to him. "Follow your heart," her grandfather tells her.

In following her heart she finds herself walking through the grey space between good and evil. In that grey space innocent lives yearn only for freedom.

On one hand she has the one she loves and a promise made to grant the innocent freedom. On the other hand she has God, her mother, her father, and her friends in the city of Angels. Nevertheless, a choice must be made.
