Preschool Favorites Diane Briggs

Comprehensive, easy to use, and overflowing with fresh ideas, Preschool Favorites has everything needed to create storytimes: just add the kids! Each of the 35 fun themes includes a wealth of book suggestions, fingerplays (the glue that holds storytime together!), short poems, flannelboard stories (complete with patterns), music suggestions (and discography), and very simple crafts. Pull together these storytime ingredients to

- # Plan and execute complete storytime programs inspired by the 35 comprehensive and inviting chapters
- # Save time with the practical outlines, proven advice, and flannelboard patterns
- # Keep children involved with a variety of different activities within the storytime
- # Identify the most recent kid-friendly read-aloud books already in the collection

From pizza and penguins to mud and moose to hopping bunnies and kangaroos, this is a refreshing primer for making storytime special in every library that serves young children. With these kid-tested storytime themes, children's librarians and staff will have everything they need to be inspired and carry through the easy planning to create engaging programs for their young, preschooler audiences.
